

PRIVACY POLICY

PLEASE READ THIS PRIVACY POLICY CAREFULLY AND CHECK IT PERIODICALLY BECAUSE IT MAY BE UPDATED FROM TIME TO TIME.

Fuel Card Services Limited (No: 2107821) operates the Fuel Card Services web site.

Fuel Card Services Ltd ("FCS") and its associated companies consider the protection of your privacy to be of utmost importance and are committed to providing you with a personalised service that meets your requirements in a way that safeguards your privacy. Where we refer to 'you' in this Privacy Policy this will include (without limitation) officers, employees, contractors and agents in relation to which we receive personal information.

This Privacy Policy explains how we may collect information about you and then use it in order to satisfy your particular requirements. It also outlines some of the security measures that we take in order to protect your privacy and gives certain assurances on things that we will not do.

When we first obtain personal information from you, or when you obtain a new product or service from us, we will give you the opportunity to indicate if you wish to receive information from us about other services or products (to "opt in"). Normally this will be done by way of tick box on an application form or contract. You may revise the choice that you have made at any time by writing to us informing us of the change. This can be done by emailing us at unsubscribe@fuelcardservices.com or by changing the appropriate settings in your personal profile registered with the site.

Some of the personal information we hold about you may be sensitive personal data within the meaning of the Data Protection Act 1998 (as amended from time to time). We will not use sensitive personal data about you other than for the specific purpose for which you provide it.

1. COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

1.1 We may collect personal information about you from a number of sources, including:

- 1.1.1 from you when you agree to obtain a product or service from us in which case this may include your contact details, payment method and possibly bank details;
- 1.1.2 from you when you contact us with an enquiry or in response to a communication from us, in which case this may tell us something about your preferences;
- 1.1.3 from publicly available sources.

2. USE OF INFORMATION

2.1 We will use personal information about you for a number of purposes, including:

- 2.1.1 to help to identify you when you telephone us to make an enquiry - for example, by asking you for your reference number so that we can avoid disclosing information to a person who is not authorised by you to receive it;

- 2.1.2 to write to you or to telephone you with information about other services or products either from us or from our carefully selected business partners. We will not use your information in this way if you have not opted in or otherwise not consented;
- 2.1.3 to help us to administer accounts, services and products which we offer;
- 2.1.4 to help detect fraud or loss.
- 2.2 Information we hold about you and your preferences will help us to make sure that we contact you about things likely to be of relevance and interest to you.
- 2.3 Whether or not you have "opted in" regarding the use of your information for direct marketing, it is our practice to search the Mailing, Telephone, Fax and Email Preference Services (as applicable) so that if you have registered your details with those Services you will not receive any direct marketing material from us via that channel.
- 2.4 In some circumstances, we may do certain credit checks with licensed credit reference agencies when you apply to take a service or product. If this is applicable then it will be stated in our terms and conditions of business.

3. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

- 3.1 As a general rule, we will not disclose any of personal information, in a form which would enable you to be identified, to anyone outside the Fuel Card Services Ltd companies. Other companies in Fuel Card Services Ltd may use personal information for any of the purposes set out above.
- 3.2 We do not sell mailing lists to third parties for their marketing purposes. Where we have told you in advance, we may disclose certain information to third parties such as a vehicle related product providers.
- 3.3 Where we believe in good faith that disclosure is required or permitted by law, information may be provided to others, such as the Police or the Inland Revenue.
- 3.4 We may also disclose information for administrative and other purposes which we deem necessary to maintain service and improve the products and services provided over our network of websites.

4. PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

- 4.1 We maintain strict security measures in order to protect personal information (including any sensitive information e.g. alleged offences and proceedings). This includes following certain procedures, for example, checking your identity when you telephone us, encrypting data on our websites and in order to ensure compliance with all applicable legal requirements.
- 4.2 You will be deemed to have explicitly consented to the processing by us of information (including any sensitive information) provided by you. Where you do not wish for us to make use of this information, please refrain from providing such information to us.

5. THE INTERNET

- 5.1 If you communicate with us via the Internet then we may occasionally use email to contact you about our services and products. When you first provide personal information to our website we will normally give you the opportunity to indicate whether you would prefer us not to contact you in this way. However, you can always send us an email at any time to change your preferences or you can change your personal profile details on the site.
- 5.2 We use "cookies" to monitor site user traffic patterns and site usage. This helps us to understand how our customers and potential customers use our websites so that we can develop and improve the design, layout and functionality of the sites. A "cookie" is a piece of information that is stored on your computer's hard drive and which records your navigation of a website so that, when you revisit that website, it can present tailored options to you based upon the stored information about your last visit. You can normally alter the settings of your browser to prevent acceptance of cookies.
- 5.3 We may also use pixel technology (sometimes called "web beacons" or "clear GIFs") to collect anonymous aggregated site user information such as page or promotion view counts or advertising responses. This information may be used for general advertising and marketing purposes, including the facilitation of visitor counts, evaluation of web usage patterns and assessment of the effectiveness of advertising campaigns. We do not however allow this technology to track what individually identifiable visitors are doing on the web or the service, and we do not build profiles about our visitors from this information or allow any other organisation to do so.

6. MONITORING OF CALLS

We may monitor and record communications we receive. This may be done to monitor and improve the service which we provide, for staff training purposes, to ensure compliance with our practices and procedures and where, for example, a contract is entered into by that means, to provide evidence of the transaction.

7. FURTHER INFORMATION

If you would like any further information or have any comments on our Privacy Policy then please write to us or send us an email to customer.services@fuelcardservices.com. We may amend this Policy from time to time in which case the amended version will be published on our websites and a copy may be obtained by writing to the above address.

8. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 8.1 As you may be aware, no data transmission over the Internet can be entirely secure. As a result, while we would always use reasonable endeavours to protect the personal information you provide to us, we cannot guarantee the security of your information and your submission of data is thus at your own risk.

April 2010